

Samson's Bad Choices

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Strength and Wisdom

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions about Samson's story.

1. Samson was very ____, but he didn't always make good choices.

2. Samson wanted to marry a woman from his own people.

True False

3. Who did Samson want to marry?

- A. A woman from Israel
- B. A woman from Timnah
- C. A woman from Egypt

4. Draw a line from Samson's choice to how it made his parents feel.

Worried

Samson wanted to marry a Philistine

Happy

Samson obeyed his parents

5. What did Samson's parents think about his choice? Circle the correct answer.

They were excited

They were worried

They were happy

6. Samson's parents asked him if there was a woman among his own ____ to marry.

7. Being strong means always making good choices.

True False

8. Who can help us make good choices?

- A. Our friends
- B. God
- C. Our toys

9. Why do you think Samson's parents were worried about his choice?

10. Samson's story teaches us that being strong is not just about muscles, but about making ____ choices.

Answer Key

1. strong 2. False 3. A woman from Timnah 4. Worried 5. They were worried 6. people 7. False 8. God 9. Because they wanted him to marry someone from his own people. 10. wise