

Chores and Work: How Children Helped Long Ago

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Daily Life in the Past

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions about how children helped their families long ago.

1. Children long ago fetched water from the ____.
2. Children helped their families with chores in the past.

True False

3. What is one way children helped on farms?

- A. Carrying water
- B. Playing games
- C. Reading books

4. Draw a line to match the chore with its importance.

Fetch water

Necessary for food

Feed animals

Fun activity

5. Why were children's chores important long ago?

6. What is a chore children do today? Circle the correct answer.

Feed farm animals

Wash dishes

Fetch water

7. Children worked alongside their ____.

8. All work is important and can honor God.

True False

9. How is life different for children today?

- A. More chores
- B. Fewer chores
- C. Same chores

10. How can we help our families today?

Answer Key

1. wells 2. True 3. Carrying water 4. Necessary for food 5. They helped the family survive. 6. Wash dishes 7. parents 8. True 9. Fewer chores 10. We can do chores and help clean up.