

Understanding Sentences

BibleMouse.com

Complete Sentences Have Two Parts

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions about sentences below.

1. A sentence needs a subject and a ____.

2. A subject tells us what happens in a sentence.

True False

3. What does the subject tell us?

- A. Who or what
- B. How it happens
- C. When it happens

4. Draw a line from each part to what it tells us.

Subject

What happens

Predicate

Who or what

5. Both parts of a sentence are needed to make a ____.

6. The predicate tells us who or what.

True False

7. Why do we need both parts of a sentence?

- A. To tell a story
- B. To make it complete
- C. To confuse people

8. What do we call the part of a sentence that tells us who or what?

9. What is one way to know a sentence is complete? Circle the correct answer.

It has a subject

It has a long word

It has no period

10. What happens if a sentence is missing one part?

Answer Key

1. predicate 2. False 3. Who or what 4. 0 5. complete sentence 6. False 7. To make it complete 8. Subject 9. It is incomplete. 10.