

Complete Sentences Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Sentence Fragments

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions about complete sentences and fragments.

1. A complete sentence needs a ___ and a predicate.

2. A sentence is complete if it has only a subject.

True False

3. What do subjects tell us?

- A. What happened
- B. Who or what
- C. When it happened

4. What is a predicate?

5. Match the part of the sentence to its description.

Subject

Tells what happened

Predicate

Tells who or what

6. Without a subject and predicate, a sentence is not ___.

7. God's words are clear and purposeful, just like complete sentences.

True False

8. What did we learn about incomplete sentences?

- A. They are always good
- B. They need fixing
- C. They are complete

9. What makes a sentence complete? Circle the correct answer.

A subject and a predicate

Just a subject

Just a predicate

10. Can you give an example of a complete sentence?

Answer Key

1. subject 2. False 3. Who or what 4. It tells what the subject does. 5. 0,1 6. complete 7. True 8. They need fixing 9. 0 10. The dog runs fast.