

Writing My Own Story

BibleMouse.com

Review of Story Elements

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions about writing your own story.

1. A good story has a beginning, middle, and ____.
2. Every story needs characters, a setting, a problem, and a solution.

True False

3. What do we call the place where the story happens?

- A. Character
- B. Setting
- C. Problem

4. Draw a line from each story element to its definition.

Character

Who the story is about

Problem

The trouble in the story

5. The ____ is the trouble that the character needs to solve.

6. What should you write on your story map?

7. Imagination is not important when writing a story.

True False

8. Which of these is something you can write about in your story?

- A. A talking dog
- B. A chair
- C. A rock

9. We can write stories that show God's love and ____.

10. What was the most fun part of writing your story?

Answer Key

1. end 2. True 3. Setting 4. 0 5. problem 6. You should write the characters, setting, problem, and solution. 7. False 8. A talking dog 9. wisdom 10. Drawing pictures and making up characters.