

Regrouping with Base-Ten Blocks

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Addition

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions about regrouping with base-ten blocks.

- When we have 10 ones, we can trade them for ____ ten.
- What do we use to show regrouping clearly?
 - Base-ten blocks
 - Coins
 - Fingers
- Regrouping helps us solve bigger addition problems.
 True False
- We gather numbers like we gather friends into ____ .
- Draw a line from the number of ones to the number of tens it makes.

10 ones

1 ten

5 ones

0 tens

- What happens when we have more than 9 ones?
 - We can keep them all
 - We trade for a ten
 - We lose them
- 10 ones can be traded for 2 tens.
 True False
- Regrouping helps us understand ____ value.
- How do base-ten blocks help us understand addition?

- What is the goal of trading 10 ones?
 - To make it easier to count
 - To play a game
 - To find the biggest number

Answer Key

1. 1 2. Base-ten blocks 3. True 4. teams 5. 1 ten 6. 1 7. False 8. place 9. They show us how to group numbers. 10. To make it easier to count