

What Will Happen Next?

BibleMouse.com

Comprehension and Predictions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below about making predictions in stories.

1. We can trust God's plan just like we can trust the story's ____.

2. Good readers do not think about the story as they read.

True False

3. What should you look at carefully to make predictions?

- A. The characters' names
- B. The pictures
- C. The page numbers

4. When making predictions, we use ____ clues from the story.

5. Draw a line from each action to its prediction.

Character looks scared

Something bad will happen

Character smiles

Something good will happen

6. Characters' actions can help us guess what might happen next in a story.

True False

7. What does Proverbs 3:5 say about trusting God?

- A. Trust in yourself
- B. Trust in others
- C. Trust in Yahweh

8. We can make predictions by looking at ____ and words in the story.

9. What did we do to check if our predictions were right?

10. What is an important skill for reading comprehension?

- A. Making predictions
- B. Counting words
- C. Drawing pictures

Answer Key

1. journey 2. False 3. The pictures 4. text 5. 1 6. True 7. Trust in Yahweh 8. pictures 9. We read the story and saw if we were correct. 10. Making predictions