

Creating Depth in Art

BibleMouse.com

Review of Landscape with Three Layers

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about creating depth and space in your artwork.

1. The three layers in a landscape are the foreground, middle ground, and ____.

2. What do artists use to show things that are far away?

- A. Bright colors
- B. Small details
- C. Large objects

3. What is one thing you might put in the foreground of your landscape?

4. The foreground has the smallest objects in a landscape.

- True False

5. Psalm 104:24 reminds us that God created the earth full of His ____.

6. What is the purpose of dividing the paper into three layers?

- A. To make it colorful
- B. To show depth and space
- C. To make it easier to draw

7. How can you show depth in your artwork?

8. The middle ground has the largest objects in a landscape.

- True False

9. What did God think of everything He had made?

- A. It was okay
- B. It was very good
- C. It was bad

10. What did you enjoy most about creating your three-layer landscape?

Answer Key

1. background 2. Small details 3. A big tree or a large rock. 4. False 5. riches 6. To show depth and space 7. By using size and detail for objects. 8. False 9. It was very good 10. I liked adding details to the foreground.