

Colonial Children: School and Work

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Daily Life in Colonial America

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about colonial children's daily life.

1. Colonial children had many responsibilities from a very young ____.

2. What did colonial children help with on farms?

- A. Planting crops
- B. Playing games
- C. Reading books

3. What is one chore you do at home?

4. Most colonial children went to school all day.

- True False

5. Chores were important for family ____.

6. Why is it important to work hard?

- A. To honor God
- B. To take a nap
- C. To play outside

7. How can you help your family today?

8. Learning for colonial children often included practical skills.

- True False

9. What is one thing that surprised you about colonial children's work?

- A. They had no chores
- B. They started working very young
- C. They only played all day

10. Colossians 3:23 says to work heartily, as for the ____.

Answer Key

1. age 2. Planting crops 3. I help wash the dishes. 4. False 5. survival 6. To honor God 7. I can tidy my room. 8. True 9. They started working very young 10. Lord