

My Story Journey Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Narrative Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below to show what you learned about writing stories.

1. What is the first part of your story map called?

2. We use words like '____' and 'next' to help order events in a story.

3. The middle part of a story comes before the beginning.

True False

4. What do we include in the beginning of our story?

- A. The ending
- B. Characters and setting
- C. The lesson learned

5. Why is it important to listen to God's wisdom in stories?

6. The last part of your story map is called the ____.

7. Which of these is a good way to start a story?

- A. Once upon a time
- B. The end
- C. To be continued

8. We should hide stories from the next generation.

True False

9. What makes a good story interesting?

10. What is one thing you should do in the middle of your story?

- A. Introduce new characters
- B. Finish the story
- C. Repeat the beginning

Answer Key

1. The beginning 2. first 3. False 4. Characters and setting 5. It helps us learn and tell our own stories. 6. end 7. Once upon a time 8. False 9. Details and exciting events. 10. Introduce new characters