

Adding Details That Sparkle

BibleMouse.com

Narrative Writing: Stories with Sequence

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about adding descriptive details to your stories.

1. Descriptive details make our stories more ____.
2. What are two senses you can describe in your writing?
3. What is one way to make your story more engaging?
 - A. Use fewer words
 - B. Add descriptive details
 - C. Make it shorter
4. Using colorful and specific words can help the reader imagine your story better.
 True False
5. What does Proverbs 16:24 teach us about words?
6. What kind of words should we use to describe our feelings?
 - A. Boring words
 - B. Sensory words
 - C. Random words
7. Adding feelings to our stories helps the reader to feel ____ about what is happening.
8. You should not share your writing with a partner for feedback.
 True False
9. What is one new detail you added to your story?
10. Why do we want our readers to feel like they are in our story?
 - A. So they can sleep
 - B. So they can feel excited
 - C. So they can write their own story

Answer Key

1. exciting 2. Sight and sound. 3. Add descriptive details 4. True 5. Pleasant words are sweet and healthy. 6. Sensory words 7. connected 8. False 9. I added a description of the sunny sky. 10. So they can feel excited