

Review of Elaborating Events with Details

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Narrative Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below based on what you learned about adding details to stories.

1. What did you learn about adding details to your writing?

2. Why are details important in stories?

- A. They make the story longer
- B. They help readers imagine
- C. They confuse the reader

3. A good name is more desirable than great ____.

4. Adding details makes a story less interesting.

- True False

5. How can you describe what you're doing with more details?

6. What is an example of a basic action?

- A. I ran quickly
- B. I played outside
- C. I ate lunch

7. The detailed description of eating lunch is 'I slowly ate my ____ sandwich, feeling happy and full.'

8. Details help readers imagine what is happening in a story.

- True False

9. What do you see, hear, or feel when something happens?

10. What should you use to make your writing more descriptive?

- A. Less words
- B. Simple words
- C. Sensory words

Answer Key

1. Details make stories more interesting. 2. They help readers imagine 3. riches 4. False 5. I can use sensory words to explain. 6. I ate lunch 7. crunchy peanut butter 8. True 9. I feel excited when I play. 10. Sensory words