

Dialogue and Quotation Marks Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Dialogue in Stories

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about dialogue and quotation marks.

1. Quotation marks show the exact words that a character ____.
2. What do you use to separate dialogue from the rest of the sentence?
 - A. Periods
 - B. Commas
 - C. Exclamation marks
3. Why is dialogue important in a story?

4. Only one character can speak in a story.
 True False
5. A soft answer turns away ____.
6. How can characters speak kindly to each other? Choose the best answer.
 - A. By yelling
 - B. By using soft words
 - C. By ignoring each other

7. What did you remember about quotation marks?

8. Quotation marks are not needed for dialogue.

True False

9. What makes a good story?
- A. Kind characters and exciting events
 - B. Only happy endings
 - C. Characters that never talk

10. How did dialogue make your story better?

Answer Key

1. says 2. Commas 3. It makes the story more interesting. 4. False 5. wrath 6. By using soft words 7. They show what someone says. 8. False 9. Kind characters and exciting events 10. It helped to show how characters feel.