

Setting Goals for Next Year

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Our Growth

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about setting goals for your learning.

1. Proverbs 16:3 teaches us to commit our works to ____.
2. What should our goals be?
 - A. Vague and unclear
 - B. Specific, measurable, and achievable
 - C. Only for school
3. What is one goal you want to achieve in language arts next year?

4. Setting goals helps us improve our learning.
 True False
5. What was one challenge you faced in language arts this year?

6. How can your family help you reach your goals?
 - A. By ignoring my goals
 - B. By encouraging me and helping me practice
 - C. By telling me I can't do it
7. Goals help us to ____ and try our best.
8. We can always learn more and improve.
 True False
9. What is one way to make your goals specific?

10. What does it mean to commit your works to Yahweh?
 - A. To forget about our plans
 - B. To trust God with our goals
 - C. To keep our goals a secret

Answer Key

1. Yahweh 2. Specific, measurable, and achievable 3. I want to write a story. 4. True 5. I had trouble with spelling. 6. By encouraging me and helping me practice 7. grow 8. True 9. Make them clear and detailed. 10. To trust God with our goals