

Place Value Treasure Hunt Review

BibleMouse.com

Exploring Tens and Ones

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about what we learned in our lesson on place value.

1. In the number 42, the digit 4 represents ____.
2. What do we call the digits that show how many tens are in a number?
 - A. Ones
 - B. Tens
 - C. Hundreds
3. Why is the position of a digit important in a number?

4. In the number 42, the digit 2 represents two tens.
 True False
5. What do we find when we combine the tens and ones in a number?
 - A. A treasure
 - B. A bigger number
 - C. A smaller number
6. Numbers can be like a treasure hunt because we search for ____ in their positions.
7. What is one way we can tell the difference between tens and ones?

8. We can use place value to help us understand bigger numbers.
 True False
9. What is the value of the digit 5 in the number 57?
 - A. 5
 - B. 50
 - C. 500
10. How did we relate our lesson to God's Word?

Answer Key

1. 40 2. Tens 3. Because it tells us the value of the digit. 4. False 5. A bigger number 6. values 7. Tens are in the first position, and ones are in the second. 8. True 9. 50 10. We seek wisdom like we seek treasures in math.