

Three-Digit Numbers Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Hundreds, Tens, and Ones

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about three-digit numbers and place value.

1. What are the three places in a three-digit number?

2. One hundred is made of ten tens.

True

False

3. What is the value of the digit 5 in the number 256?

A. 5

B. 50

C. 500

4. Numbers can be built like ____ builds the world.

5. How can we build numbers using blocks?

6. Each place in a three-digit number has the same value.

True

False

7. Which of these is a three-digit number?

A. 45

B. 123

C. 1000

8. God's wisdom is shown in how we understand ____ and ____ in numbers.

9. How many ones are in the number 432?

A. 2

B. 3

C. 4

10. What did we learn about God's design in numbers?

Answer Key

1. Hundreds, tens, and ones. 2. True 3. 50 4. God 5. We can use base-ten blocks to show hundreds, tens, and ones. 6. False 7. 123 8. place value 9. 2 10. God uses wisdom and understanding to create and we can see this in math.