

Math Review: Trading Up

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Regrouping

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below based on what we learned about trading ones and regrouping.

1. When we have 10 ones, we trade them for ____ ten.

2. What do we do when the ones column exceeds 9?

- A. Add more ones
- B. Trade for tens
- C. Ignore it

3. Why is regrouping important in math?

---

---

4. The ones column can hold more than 9 without regrouping.

- True       False

5. If I have 12 ones, I would trade ____ ones for 1 ten.

6. How do we show numbers using blocks?

- A. By writing them down
- B. By using base-ten blocks
- C. By counting fingers

7. What happens to wealth gained dishonestly according to Proverbs 13:11?

---

---

8. We can fit 12 ones in one column without trading.

- True       False

9. What do we call the process of exchanging 10 ones for 1 ten?

- A. Regrouping
- B. Adding
- C. Subtracting

10. What do we gather by hand according to the scripture?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. 1    2. Trade for tens    3. It keeps our math organized and clear.    4. False    5. 10    6. By using base-ten blocks    7. It dwindles away.    8. False    9. Regrouping    10. Wealth that grows.