

Subtraction and Regrouping Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding How to Break Apart Tens

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about regrouping in subtraction.

1. When we don't have enough ones, we can borrow from the ____.

2. What do we trade a ten block for when we need more ones?

- A. Five ones
- B. Ten ones
- C. One hundred ones

3. Why is it important to understand regrouping?

4. We can use base-ten blocks to help with subtraction problems.

- True False

5. What do we call the blocks that represent ten?

6. What is one thing that regrouping helps us do?

- A. Add more numbers
- B. Solve harder problems
- C. Draw pictures

7. Each ten block can be traded for ____ ones.

8. Regrouping means we combine tens and ones.

- True False

9. What happens when we break apart tens?

10. What does wisdom help us gain according to Proverbs 4:7?

- A. Money
- B. Understanding
- C. Friends

Answer Key

1. tens 2. Ten ones 3. It helps us solve subtraction problems better. 4. True 5. Ten blocks or ten rods. 6. Solve harder problems 7. ten 8. False 9. We get more ones to use for subtraction. 10. Understanding