

Math and Service Project Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding How We Use Math to Help Others

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about our lesson on planning a service project.

1. We can use math to calculate the ____ needed for our service project.

2. What scripture reminds us to serve one another in love?

- A. Matthew 5:16
- B. Galatians 5:13
- C. Philippians 4:13

3. How can our project help others?

4. We used addition and subtraction skills in our service project planning.

- True False

5. The community care packages are for a local ____.

6. What should we track for our service project?

- A. Project colors
- B. Project costs
- C. Project games

7. What is one need we identified for our service project?

8. Using math in service projects is not helpful.

- True False

9. We demonstrate compassion by using math to ____ others.

10. What is a skill we practiced during our lesson?

- A. Singing
- B. Addition and Subtraction
- C. Drawing

Answer Key

1. quantities 2. Galatians 5:13 3. By providing care packages to those in need. 4. True 5. shelter 6. Project costs 7. We need food items. 8. False 9. serve 10. Addition and Subtraction