

Syllable Type Review

BibleMouse.com

Phonics and Reading Fun!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about syllable types.

1. A VCe syllable has a silent ____ at the end.
2. What is a closed syllable?
 - A. A syllable that ends with a vowel sound
 - B. A syllable that has a vowel followed by a consonant
 - C. A syllable that has a silent e
3. Can you give an example of a VCe word?

4. The silent e makes the first vowel say its name.

True False

5. What are the three syllable types we learned?

6. What happens when you see an e at the end of a word?

- A. It makes the word longer
- B. It helps the vowel say its name
- C. It changes the meaning of the word

7. Open syllables end with a ____ sound.

8. Reading is like solving a fun puzzle.

True False

9. Why is the silent e called a magic helper?

10. Which of the following is a closed syllable?

- A. go
- B. cat
- C. cake

Answer Key

1. e 2. A syllable that has a vowel followed by a consonant 3. cake 4. True 5. Closed, open, and VCe 6. It helps the vowel say its name 7. vowel 8. True 9. Because it helps the vowel say its name. 10. cat