

Consonant-LE Words Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Syllable Division

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about consonant-le syllables.

1. The word 'table' breaks into two syllables: ta/____.
2. What makes a consonant-le syllable special?
 - A. It ends with -le
 - B. It starts with a vowel
 - C. It has two syllables
3. Where does the syllable break in 'bubble'?

4. The consonant before -le is part of the consonant-le syllable.
 True False
5. Which word is an example of a consonant-le word?
 - A. apple
 - B. table
 - C. run
6. How can breaking words into syllables help you read?

7. The last syllable in a consonant-le word is always ____.
8. The syllable break in 'apple' is between 'ap' and 'ple'.
 True False
9. What is the syllable division of the word 'candle'?
 - A. can/dle
 - B. can/del
 - C. candle
10. What do you notice about words that end in -le?

Answer Key

1. ble 2. It ends with -le 3. The syllable breaks between 'bub' and 'ble'. 4. True 5. table 6. It makes it easier to sound out the words. 7. stable 8. False 9. can/dle 10. They always have a consonant before -le.