

Syllable Types: Consonant-LE Syllables

BibleMouse.com

Review your understanding of consonant-le syllables!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about consonant-le syllables.

1. What does a consonant-le syllable always come at the end of?

2. What do you look for before the -le in a word?

- A. A vowel
- B. A consonant
- C. A space

3. Consonant-le syllables can be found at the beginning of a word.

- True False

4. Breaking a word into smaller parts is called ____ it.

5. What was the trickiest word you decoded today?

6. How does breaking a big word into smaller parts help us read?

- A. It makes it harder.
- B. It helps us understand it better.
- C. It makes the word disappear.

7. Consonant-le syllables always end a word.

- True False

8. Can you find a consonant-le syllable in the word 'candle'?

9. The memory verse says to ____ to my words.

10. What is an example of a consonant-le syllable?

- A. table
- B. apple
- C. car

Answer Key

1. A word. 2. A consonant 3. False 4. decoding 5. Sample answer could be 'table'. 6. It helps us understand it better. 7. True 8. Yes, it is 'dle'. 9. attend 10. table