

Habitat Presentation Day Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Organisms and Their Habitats

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about habitats and presentations.

1. What is one thing you learned about habitats?

2. What should you do to make a good presentation?

- A. Read from a paper
- B. Speak clearly and loudly
- C. Ignore the audience

3. God made animals to fit their habitats.

- True False

4. God saw that His creation was ____.

5. Why is eye contact important during a presentation?

6. How many interesting facts should you share in your presentation?

- A. 1-2
- B. 3-4
- C. 5-6

7. You should not use a poster during your presentation.

- True False

8. Organisms depend on their ____ for survival.

9. What is one way to show respect to presenters?

10. What did God create animals to do?

- A. Live anywhere
- B. Fit their habitats
- C. Only live in water

Answer Key

1. Different animals live in different habitats. 2. Speak clearly and loudly 3. True 4. good 5. It shows you are engaged with the audience. 6. 3-4 7. False 8. habitats 9. Listen quietly while they speak. 10. Fit their habitats