

Life Science Assessment Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding God's Creation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about what we learned in life science this year.

1. God's creation includes many different ____ and animals.
2. What do we call the way animals change to survive in their environment?
 - A. Habitat
 - B. Adaptation
 - C. Food chain
3. What is one interesting thing you learned about animals this year?

4. Food chains show how energy moves from one living thing to another.
 True False

5. The earth is full of God's ____ and creatures.

6. Which of these is NOT a habitat?
 - A. Forest
 - B. Ocean
 - C. Tree

7. How do animals adapt to their environments? Give one example.

8. Understanding nature helps us appreciate God's design.
 True False

9. What is a food chain?
 - A. A place where animals live
 - B. A series of animals that eat each other
 - C. A type of plant

10. Why is it important to learn about living things?

Answer Key

1. habitats 2. Adaptation 3. Some animals can camouflage to hide from predators. 4. True 5. works 6. Tree 7. They grow thicker fur in winter to stay warm. 8. True 9. A series of animals that eat each other 10. It helps us understand how to take care of God's creation.