

Matter Investigation Showcase Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Scientific Presentations

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about the Matter Investigation Showcase.

1. What is one guideline for a good scientific presentation?

2. It is important to share your investigation question during a presentation.
 True False
3. What should you show during your presentation?
 - A. Your favorite toy
 - B. Your data and results
 - C. A picture of your pet
4. The heart of the discerning gets ____ according to Proverbs 18:15.
5. What did you learn from your classmates during the presentations?

6. How can we be kind listeners?
 - A. By talking while others present
 - B. By paying attention and being quiet
 - C. By ignoring the presenter
7. You should explain your procedure during your presentation.
 True False
8. Sharing your findings helps develop ____ skills.
9. What makes a good scientific presentation?

10. What should you tell your audience at the end of your presentation?
 - A. What you learned
 - B. What you want for lunch
 - C. How to play a game

Answer Key

1. Speak clearly and confidently. 2. True 3. Your data and results 4. knowledge 5. I learned about different types of matter. 6. By paying attention and being quiet 7. True 8. communication 9. Clear speaking and sharing results. 10. What you learned