

Cross-Contour Creation Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Lines in Art

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what we learned about cross-contour lines and God's creation.

1. What are cross-contour lines used for in drawing?

- A. To color objects
- B. To create the illusion of form
- C. To erase mistakes

2. God created all things through him and for ___ according to Colossians 1:16.

3. Why is it important to learn about cross-contour lines in art?

4. Match the following terms with their meanings.

Cross-contour lines

Lines that wrap around an object

Three-dimensional objects

Objects that have depth and volume

5. What do cross-contour lines help us understand about objects?

- A. Their color
- B. Their shape and roundness
- C. Their size

6. Lines can make flat drawings look like they have ___

7. Name one round object you can see around you. Why is it round?

8. Draw a line from the object to its description.

Ball

Round and smooth

Apple

Has a curve and is edible

9. How do artists create the illusion of depth in their drawings?

- A. By using bright colors
- B. By adding lines that wrap around objects
- C. By drawing everything flat

10. What do you appreciate about God's creation of three-dimensional shapes?

Answer Key

1. To create the illusion of form 2. him 3. They help us show the shape and roundness of objects. 4. Lines that wrap around an object 5. Their shape and roundness 6. depth 7. A ball, because it is circular and smooth all around. 8. Round and smooth 9. By adding lines that wrap around objects 10. I appreciate how they are beautiful and unique. They show God's creativity.

