

Collage: Real Texture Composition

BibleMouse.com

Review of Textures in God's Creation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about real and implied textures and God's creativity.

1. What is real texture?

- A. Something we can only see
- B. Something we can feel and touch
- C. Something that is imagined

2. God designed the world with amazing ____ diversity.

3. Why is it important to explore different textures in art?

4. Match the texture to the feeling it gives you.

Soft

Calm

Rough

Exciting

Smooth

Comforting

5. Which scripture reminds us of God's works?

- A. Genesis 1:1
- B. Psalm 104:24
- C. John 3:16

6. Different materials in a collage create unique sensory ____ experiences.

7. What was your favorite texture you used in the collage?

8. Implied texture is something we can actually feel and touch.

True

False

9. How does creating a collage help us appreciate God's creativity?

- A. It shows only one type of texture
- B. It lets us use materials that we can see
- C. It allows us to use different textures and see God's variety

10. What are some textures you love to touch?

Answer Key

1. Something we can feel and touch 2. textural 3. Exploring textures helps us notice God's creation better and develop our senses. 4. Comforting 5. Psalm 104:24 6. experiences 7. My favorite texture was the soft fabric because it felt nice to touch. 8. False 9. It allows us to use different textures and see God's variety 10. I love to touch fluffy pillows and rough tree bark because they feel interesting.