

Tree Bark Portrait Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Texture in Art

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about tree bark and texture.

1. What is one of the objectives of the lesson on tree bark?

- A. To create a sculpture
- B. To create a detailed drawing
- C. To write a poem

2. Tree bark tells a story of growth and ____.

3. Why is texture important in art?

4. Match the texture type to its description.

Rough

Feels bumpy and uneven

Smooth

Feels flat and even

5. What did Psalm 104:24 remind us about God's creation?

- A. He made everything without wisdom
- B. He created only a few things
- C. He made all things in wisdom

6. Observing different types of tree bark helps us appreciate God's intricate ____.

7. What surprised you about tree bark textures?

8. How does tree bark help protect the tree?

- A. By keeping it warm
- B. By holding water
- C. By protecting it from damage

9. Tree bark is smooth and does not have any texture.

True False

10. How does this artwork show God's creative design?

Answer Key

1. To create a detailed drawing 2. resilience 3. Texture helps us understand how things feel and adds interest to our artwork. 4. Feels bumpy and uneven 5. He made all things in wisdom 6. design 7. I was surprised by how many different patterns and colors there are. 8. By protecting it from damage 9. False 10. It shows the unique patterns and details that God created in nature.