

Emphasis in Art

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Focal Points and Storytelling

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about the lesson on creating emphasis in artwork.

1. What is the focal point in an artwork?

- A. The least important part
- B. The most important part
- C. The background

2. You can create emphasis using size, color, and ____.

3. Why is it important to have a focal point in your artwork?

4. Match the method of emphasis to its description.

Size

Make it bigger

Color

Use bright colors

Placement

Put it in a special spot

5. Using brighter colors can help something stand out in art.

True

False

6. What can you do to make your main character stand out?

- A. Make it smaller
- B. Use dull colors
- C. Make it bigger

7. How does emphasis help tell a story in art?

8. A skilled person in their work will stand before ____ according to Proverbs 22:29.

9. What does Proverbs 22:29 teach us about skill?

- A. Skill is not important
- B. Skill leads to recognition
- C. Anyone can be skilled

10. What will you create in the 'My Hero Moment' activity?

Answer Key

1. The most important part 2. placement 3. It helps the viewer know what to look at first. 4. 0,1,2 5. True 6. Make it bigger 7. It shows what is most important, making the story clear. 8. kings 9. Skill leads to recognition 10. I will create an artwork that shows my hero with a clear focal point.

