

Watercolor Techniques Review

BibleMouse.com

Exploring Salt and Texture in Art

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about using salt in watercolor paintings.

1. What does salt do when added to wet watercolors?

- A. Makes the paint brighter
- B. Absorbs water and creates patterns
- C. Changes the color completely

2. God's creativity can be seen in our art, just like in ____ nature.

3. What textures do you see in nature that inspire your art?

4. Match the type of salt to its effect in watercolor painting.

Coarse salt

Creates larger patterns

Fine salt

Creates finer details

5. Which scripture reminds us of God's creativity?

- A. Genesis 1:1
- B. Psalm 104:24
- C. John 3:16

6. Salt creates ____-like patterns in wet watercolor paint.

7. How does using salt in painting remind you of God's creative power?

8. Different sizes of salt create the same texture effects in watercolor.

- True False

9. What is one reason we use salt in watercolor painting? Circle the correct answer.

To make it taste better

To absorb water and create effects

To change the paint color

10. What was one objective of our lesson on salt and texture?

- A. To learn how to paint landscapes
- B. To understand how salt creates effects
- C. To study different painting styles

Answer Key

1. Absorbs water and creates patterns 2. God's 3. I see rough bark on trees and smooth water surfaces. 4. Creates larger patterns 5. Psalm 104:24 6. crystal 7. It shows how something simple can create beautiful effects, just like God made everything. 8. False 9. To absorb water and create effects 10. To understand how salt creates effects