

Finishing Sculptures: Paint and Presentation

BibleMouse.com

3rd Grade Art Review

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about finishing sculptures with paint and presentation.

1. What is one technique for painting sculptural forms?

- A. Using only one color
- B. Different brush strokes create texture
- C. Painting with your hands

2. Colossians 3:23 teaches us to work ____, as for the Lord.

3. How can color selection affect the mood of a sculpture?

4. Draw a line from the painting technique to its description.

Multiple thin layers

Better than one thick layer

Color selection

Communicates mood

5. What story might your sculpture tell?

- A. It shows a rainbow
- B. It tells about a favorite memory
- C. It has no story

6. The way we present art can change how we ____ it.

7. Why is it important to finish your sculpture carefully?

8. Which brush technique can create texture?

- A. Dabbing
- B. Smearing
- C. Using one flat stroke

9. Match the type of brush stroke to its effect.

Dabbing

Adds texture

Sweeping

Creates smooth lines

10. What did you learn about finishing art in this lesson?

Answer Key

1. Different brush strokes create texture 2. heartily 3. Color can make a sculpture feel happy or sad. Bright colors can feel cheerful. 4. Better than one thick layer 5. It tells about a favorite memory 6. see 7. Finishing carefully shows respect for the artwork. It also makes it look better for others to see. 8. Dabbing 9. Adds texture 10. I learned that painting in layers is important. It makes the sculpture look nicer.