

Botanical Drawing Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Plant Life through Observation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about our lesson on botanical drawing and plant life.

1. What is the main purpose of botanical drawing?

- A. To paint with bright colors
- B. To observe and represent natural details
- C. To draw animals

2. God created plants that yield ____ and fruit trees bearing fruit according to their kinds.

3. What surprised you about your plant's details?

4. Match the plant features to their descriptions.

Veins

The surface feel of a leaf

Texture

The lines that carry water and nutrients

5. Which scripture talks about God creating plants?

- A. Genesis 1:11
- B. Exodus 2:5
- C. Matthew 5:14

6. Observational drawing helps us appreciate God's ____ design in plant life.

7. How might an artist capture intricate details in a plant?

8. What should we pay attention to when observing a plant?

- A. The color and size only
- B. The shapes, veins, and textures
- C. The smell of the plant

9. Botanical drawing requires ____ observation of natural details.

10. How does your drawing show God's creative design?

Answer Key

1. To observe and represent natural details 2. seed 3. I was surprised by the different colors and shapes. 4. The surface feel of a leaf 5. Genesis 1:11 6. intricate 7. An artist can use careful observation and detailed lines. 8. The shapes, veins, and textures 9. patient 10. My drawing shows the unique shapes and colors that God made.