

Nature Journal Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding God's Creation through Observation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below based on what you learned about creating a nature journal page.

1. What is one objective of creating a nature journal page?

- A. To practice math skills
- B. To learn observational drawing
- C. To write a story

2. Psalm 104:24 reminds us that the earth is full of your ____.

3. What makes something in nature beautiful?

4. Match the part of the nature journal to its purpose.

Drawing

To describe the object

Labels

To show what it looks like

Notes

To add personal observations

5. What should you do when selecting a natural object to draw?

- A. Pick anything
- B. Choose something interesting
- C. Only choose flowers

6. When drawing from observation, you should focus on the details of the ____.

7. How can we honor God by studying His creation carefully?

8. Nature journaling helps us develop observation skills.

True

False

9. What is one way to add to your nature journal page?

- A. Add a story
- B. Include a drawing
- C. Write a poem

10. God's creation shows His ____ and intention.

Answer Key

1. To learn observational drawing 2. creatures 3. It can be colorful, unique, or has interesting shapes. 4. To show what it looks like, To describe the object, To add personal observations 5. Choose something interesting 6. object 7. We can appreciate His work and learn more about the world He made. 8. True 9. Include a drawing 10. creativity