

Psalm 110: Priest and King

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Jesus in David's Songs

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on Psalm 110 and what you learned about Jesus' roles as priest and king.

1. Who wrote Psalm 110?

2. What are the two special jobs of Jesus mentioned in Psalm 110?

- A. Prophet and Teacher
- B. Priest and King
- C. Savior and Friend

3. The LORD said to my Lord, 'Sit at my ___ hand.'

4. Psalm 110 shows that Jesus is only a king and not a priest.

- True False

5. What does a king do?

6. What does a priest do?

- A. Leads the army
- B. Speaks to God for the people
- C. Makes laws for the kingdom

7. Match the role to its description.

King

Leads the people

Priest

Represents the people before God

8. Psalm 110 is a prophecy about ____.

9. How does Psalm 110 show Jesus' authority?

10. What does it mean for Jesus to make His enemies His footstool?

- A. He has defeated them
- B. He needs their help
- C. He ignores them

Answer Key

1. David 2. Priest and King 3. right 4. False 5. A king rules and leads the people. 6. Speaks to God for the people 7. King, Leads the people; Priest, Represents the people before God 8. Jesus 9. It shows that He sits at God's right hand and has victory over His enemies. 10. He has defeated them