

Review of the Roman Republic

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Power to the People

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about the Roman Republic.

1. What were the main parts of the Roman government?

- A. Senate, Consuls, and Citizen Assemblies
- B. President, Congress, and Supreme Court
- C. King, Lords, and Peasants

2. In the Roman Republic, citizens could participate by ____ in government decisions.

3. Why is it important for people to be involved in decision-making?

4. Who were the leaders chosen by in the Roman Republic?

- A. Themselves
- B. The people
- C. The kings

5. Match the part of the Roman government to its description.

Senate

Made laws

Consuls

Led the army

6. Romans wanted to avoid having a ____ to rule over them.

7. How did citizens have a voice in the Roman Republic?

8. What does Romans 13:1 teach about authority?

- A. All authority is from God
- B. Kings are the only authority
- C. People should ignore authorities

9. When the righteous increase, the people ____.

10. What do you think makes a good leader?

Answer Key

1. Senate, Consuls, and Citizen Assemblies 2. voting 3. It helps ensure that everyone's voice is heard and leads to better choices for the community. 4. The people 5. Made laws 6. king 7. Citizens could vote for their leaders and participate in assemblies to discuss laws. 8. All authority is from God 9. rejoice 10. A good leader listens to the people and makes fair decisions that help everyone.