

Review of Ancient India: Land of Diversity

BibleMouse.com

Understanding India's Geography

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about the Indian subcontinent.

1. What are the world's tallest mountains found in India called?

- A. Himalayan Mountains
- B. Andes Mountains
- C. Rocky Mountains

2. The two major rivers in India are the ____ and the ____.

3. Why do you think rivers are important for human settlements?

4. What does the gathering of waters create according to Genesis 1:9-10?

- A. Mountains
- B. Seas
- C. Forests

5. Match the geographic features to their descriptions.

Himalayan Mountains

World's tallest mountains

Indus River

Crucial for agriculture

6. What is one way that mountains can protect a civilization?

7. God saw that His creation was ____.

8. What type of climate brings seasonal rains to India?

- A. Tropical
- B. Monsoon
- C. Desert

9. What does Psalm 104:24 teach us about God's creation?

10. India's geography is complex and ____.

Answer Key

1. Himalayan Mountains 2. Indus, Ganges 3. Rivers provide water for drinking and irrigation, which helps people grow food. 4. Seas 5. World's tallest mountains 6. Mountains can act as barriers against invaders and harsh weather. 7. good 8. Monsoon 9. It shows that God made the earth with wisdom and filled it with creatures. 10. varied