

Ancient Civilizations World Tour Review

BibleMouse.com

3rd Grade History

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about ancient civilizations.

1. Which ancient civilization is known for the pyramids?

- A. Greece
- B. Egypt
- C. China

2. The ancient civilization of ____ is famous for its philosophers and democracy.

3. What did you learn about Mesopotamia that you found interesting?

4. Which civilization is recognized for its contribution to law and government?

- A. Rome
- B. Egypt
- C. Greece

5. Match the civilization to its unique contribution.

Great Wall

Pyramids

Philosophy

China

Egypt

Greece

6. According to Deuteronomy 32:7, we should remember the days of ____.

7. How can we respect different cultures based on what you learned?

8. What is one reason why we study ancient civilizations?

- A. To find treasure
- B. To understand our history
- C. To make art

9. Ancient civilizations like ____ and Rome have shaped the world we live in today.

10. What surprised you about ancient cultures during the lesson?

Answer Key

1. Egypt 2. Greece 3. I learned that Mesopotamia is known as the 'Cradle of Civilization' because it was one of the first places where people settled and built cities. 4. Rome 5. China 6. old 7. We can respect different cultures by learning about them and appreciating their contributions to history. 8. To understand our history 9. Greece 10. I was surprised that many ancient cultures had similar ways of solving problems, even though they were far apart.

