

Ancient Trade Routes Review

BibleMouse.com

Exploring Trade and Cooperation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about ancient trade routes.

1. What is one major trade route that connected China to Europe?

- A. Trans-Saharan Route
- B. Silk Road
- C. Mediterranean Sea Routes

2. The ____ routes allowed for trade across the Mediterranean Sea.

3. Why was trade important for different civilizations?

---

---

4. Which of these routes crossed the African desert?

- A. Silk Road
- B. Trans-Saharan Route
- C. Mediterranean Sea Routes

5. Match the trade route to what it primarily connected.

Silk Road

Asia and Europe

Mediterranean Sea Routes

Europe and Africa

Trans-Saharan Routes

Africa and the Middle East

6. What kinds of goods do you think were most valuable in ancient trade?

---

---

7. What did Proverbs 11:26 teach about selling grain?

- A. It is bad to sell grain.
- B. People will bless those who sell grain.
- C. No one cares about grain.

8. The routes helped people exchange valuable ____ and learn about each other.

9. How can trading help people show love to others?

---

---

10. What is the main idea of the lesson about ancient trade routes?

- A. Trade is only about money.
- B. Trade connects civilizations and helps them share resources.
- C. Trade is unimportant.

---

Answer Key

1. Silk Road 2. Mediterranean 3. Trade allowed civilizations to get goods they needed and share their cultures. 4. Trans-Saharan Route 5. Asia and Europe, Europe and Africa, Africa and the Middle East 6. Goods like silk, spices, and gold were very valuable for trade. 7. People will bless those who sell grain. 8. goods 9. Trading allows people to help each other by sharing what they have. 10. Trade connects civilizations and helps them share resources.