

Review on Resources: Limited but Valuable

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Ancient Trade and Stewardship

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions about what you learned regarding resources and stewardship.

1. What does it mean when we say resources are limited?

- A. There are many resources everywhere
- B. We can't always get what we need
- C. Resources are always free

2. God expects us to be good ____ of what He provides.

3. Why might some areas have more resources than others?

4. Match the resource to its description.

Water

Used for drinking and farming

Gold

Valuable for trading

5. What did God provide for food according to Genesis 1:29?

- A. Animals
- B. Herbs and trees
- C. Minerals

6. The plans of the diligent surely lead to ____, as surely as haste leads to poverty.

7. How can we be good managers of what God provides?

8. What is one reason ancient civilizations traded?

- A. To get what they needed
- B. To waste resources
- C. To avoid working

9. What is a biblical principle we learn about resources?

10. Not all places have the same ____, which is why trade is important.

Answer Key

1. We can't always get what we need 2. managers 3. Some areas have better soil or climate. Others might have more water or minerals. 4. Used for drinking and farming 5. Herbs and trees 6. profit 7. By using resources wisely and being thankful for them. 8. To get what they needed 9. We should manage them wisely and be thankful for what we have. 10. resources