

Artifacts Tell Stories Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Archaeology and History

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about artifacts and archaeology.

1. What is an artifact?

- A. A tool used for digging
- B. A physical object left by people
- C. A type of ancient plant

2. Archaeologists are like ____ who use objects to understand how people lived in the past.

3. Why is careful observation important when examining old objects?

4. Draw a line from each artifact to what it might tell us about a culture.

Broken pot

Family life

Tool

Work type

5. Which verse tells us that God gives wisdom?

- A. Deuteronomy 6:10-12
- B. Proverbs 2:6
- C. Genesis 1:1

6. Studying history helps us understand God's ____ for humanity.

7. What is one thing you learned about how people lived from the artifacts?

8. What did the lesson compare archaeologists to?

- A. Doctors
- B. Detectives
- C. Engineers

9. Artifacts can tell us different parts of a culture's ____.

10. What was your favorite artifact today and why?

Answer Key

1. A physical object left by people 2. detectives 3. Careful observation helps us learn about the artifact's history and value. 4. Family life 5. Proverbs 2:6 6. plan 7. I learned that people used tools for their work and had families that needed to eat. 8. Detectives 9. story 10. My favorite artifact was the broken pot because it showed me how families used to cook.