

History Fair: Part 2 Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Our Presentations

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below based on what we learned in class about the history fair and presentations.

1. What should you do when presenting your research?
  - A. Look down at your notes
  - B. Speak clearly and confidently
  - C. Ignore the audience
2. Proverbs 22:29 teaches us that a skilled person will stand before ____.
3. What was one interesting fact you learned about your historical civilization?

4. Match the presentation skill to its description.

Clear speaking

Looking at your audience while speaking

Eye contact

Speaking without mumbling

Answering questions

Responding to what others ask

5. Why is understanding history important?
  - A. To win games
  - B. To learn from the past
  - C. To forget old things
6. During our presentations, we should share the most ____ facts about our research.
7. How did your research help you understand history better?

8. Students should be prepared to answer questions during their presentations.

True

False

9. What is one goal of the History Fair?
  - A. To compete with each other
  - B. To celebrate learning achievements
  - C. To make it boring

10. A skilled person will stand before kings because he is ____ in his work.

---

Answer Key

1. Speak clearly and confidently 2. kings 3. I learned that they built great pyramids. 4. Looking at your audience while speaking 5. To learn from the past 6. interesting 7. It gave me more details about the events and people. 8. True 9. To celebrate learning achievements 10. skilled