

Setting the Scene Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Narrative Writing and Settings

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about settings and sensory details in stories.

1. What senses can you use to describe a setting?

- A. Hearing
- B. Smelling
- C. All of the above

2. God planted a garden in _____, where He put the man He had formed.

3. How can sensory details help readers feel like they are in a place?

4. Match the sensory detail with the sense it relates to.

Sweet smell of flowers

Smell

Sound of birds singing

Hearing

5. Why is it important to use descriptive words when writing about settings?

- A. To make it longer
- B. To help readers imagine the place
- C. To confuse the reader

6. The memory verse says that Yahweh made the earth full of His _____.

7. What details did you use to make your place feel special in your drawing?

8. Sensory details can change the mood of a story.

- True False

9. What is one way to make a story's setting feel real? Circle the correct answer.

Using fewer details

Adding sensory descriptions

Not describing it at all

10. What did God create in Eden according to Genesis 2:8?

Answer Key

1. All of the above 2. Eden 3. Sensory details help readers imagine what they see, hear, and smell, making the place feel real. 4. Smell 5. To help readers imagine the place 6. riches 7. I used bright colors to show flowers and added sounds of water to make it peaceful. 8. True 9. Adding sensory descriptions 10. God created a garden in Eden and placed the man there.