

My Story Begins Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Narrative Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about writing personal narratives.

1. What should you start with in a personal narrative?

- A. A boring detail
- B. An exciting moment
- C. A long list of facts

2. In writing, it is important to use ____ language to make the story come alive.

3. Why is it important to introduce characters and setting in a story?

4. Match the term to its description.

Character

Where the story takes place

Setting

Who is in the story

5. What does Proverbs 16:3 remind us to do with our plans?

- A. Ignore them
- B. Share them with friends
- C. Commit them to Yahweh

6. To make a story engaging, you should show, not just ____.

7. What makes you unique that you would want to share in a story?

8. What is one way we can share God's love through our writing?

- A. By writing only about sad things
- B. By sharing positive experiences
- C. By telling lies

9. Match each narrative component to its example.

Exciting moment

The sun was shining brightly

Descriptive language

The hero saved the day

10. What interesting experience do you want to share in your story?

Answer Key

1. An exciting moment 2. descriptive 3. It helps readers understand who is in the story and where it takes place. 4. Who is in the story 5. Commit them to Yahweh 6. tell 7. I have a special talent for drawing that I love to share with others. 8. By sharing positive experiences 9. The hero saved the day 10. I want to share about the time I went camping in the mountains.

