

Endings That Satisfy

BibleMouse.com

Review of Narrative Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about writing story endings.

1. What did you learn about writing story endings today?

2. What is a key element of a good story ending?

- A. It should leave questions unanswered
- B. It should show character growth
- C. It should be very short

3. A good ending should provide ___ to the reader.

4. A great ending makes the story feel complete.

- True False

5. What does Ecclesiastes 7:8 teach about endings?

- A. Beginnings are better than endings
- B. The end of a thing is important
- C. Endings don't matter

6. Match the storytelling elements with their descriptions.

Wrap up events

Shows what the character learned

Character change

Brings closure to the storyline

7. How can a good ending make a story more meaningful?

8. A patient spirit is better than a ___ spirit.

9. How do you feel when a story ends abruptly?

- A. Happy
- B. Confused
- C. Excited

10. What makes a good ending different from a great ending?

Answer Key

1. I learned how to wrap up the story and make the ending satisfying. 2. It should show character growth 3. closure 4. true 5. The end of a thing is important 6. Shows what the character learned 7. It helps readers understand the story better and feel satisfied. 8. proud 9. Confused 10. A great ending leaves a lasting impression and ties everything together perfectly.