

Author's Chair Celebration Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Presentations and Storytelling

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the questions below based on our Author's Chair Celebration lesson.

1. What is one way to show respect when someone is presenting their story?

- A. Talk while they read
- B. Listen quietly
- C. Ignore them

2. Proverbs 15:1 teaches us that a gentle answer turns away ____.

3. What did you enjoy about hearing your classmates' stories?

4. Match the presentation skill with its description.

Speak clearly

Use your voice to show feelings

Look at your audience

Make eye contact with listeners

Read with expression

Articulate your words well

5. What did we practice in the Author's Chair?

- A. Telling jokes
- B. Presenting narratives
- C. Drawing pictures

6. To present well, it's important to maintain good ____.

7. Why is it important to listen respectfully to peers' presentations?

8. It is okay to interrupt a classmate while they are presenting.

True

False

9. What makes a story interesting to listen to?

- A. Long sentences
- B. Exciting characters
- C. Reading quietly

10. During our presentations, we should be proud of our ____.

Answer Key

1. Listen quietly 2. wrath 3. I liked the way they told their stories and their ideas. 4. Use your voice to show feelings 5. Presenting narratives 6. posture 7. It shows we care about their work and helps us learn. 8. False 9. Exciting characters 10. writing