

Understanding Informative Writing Review

BibleMouse.com

Test Your Knowledge about Informative Texts

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about informative writing.

1. What is the main purpose of informative writing?

- A. To tell a story
- B. To share knowledge
- C. To entertain

2. Informative writing helps us ____ knowledge.

3. What are the key features of nonfiction writing?

4. Match the part of informative writing to its description.

Introduction

Summarizes the main points

Conclusion

Introduces the topic

5. Which of the following is NOT a type of nonfiction book?

- A. Biography
- B. Novel
- C. Cookbook

6. The typical structure of an informative text includes an introduction, main ideas, supporting details, and a ____.

7. Why is it important to learn new things?

8. Informative writing is meant to entertain the reader.

- True False

9. What does the memory verse Proverbs 1:5 teach us about learning?

- A. Listening is unimportant
- B. Wisdom comes from learning
- C. Only wise people ask questions

10. What did you learn today about informative writing?

Answer Key

1. To share knowledge 2. share 3. Nonfiction writing uses facts and has a clear structure. 4. Introduces the topic 5. Novel 6. conclusion 7. Learning new things helps us grow and understand the world better. 8. False 9. Wisdom comes from learning 10. I learned that informative writing helps us organize facts clearly.