

Treasure Hunt Review

BibleMouse.com

Exploring Informative Writing Topics

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about informative writing and God's creation.

1. What is a good informative writing topic?

- A. A broad topic like Animals
- B. A specific topic like Honeybees in God's Ecosystem
- C. A topic that is hard to understand

2. Learning about creation can help us understand more about ____

3. Why is it important to choose specific topics for writing?

4. Match the topic with its specific subject.

Animals

Trees in Forests

Plants

Dolphins in Oceans

5. What should you consider when choosing a topic?

- A. How it reveals God's creativity
- B. How easy it is to write
- C. How many pages it will be

6. Proverbs 22:20 teaches us to write ____ things of counsel and knowledge.

7. How can our writing help others learn about God's creation?

8. What is one way to narrow down a broad topic?

- A. Choose a different topic
- B. Ask questions about the topic
- C. Write about everything

9. God saw everything He had made, and it was very ____.

10. What makes a topic interesting for writing?

Answer Key

1. A specific topic like Honeybees in God's Ecosystem 2. God 3. Specific topics make it easier to write and help readers understand better. 4. Dolphins in Oceans 5. How it reveals God's creativity 6. excellent 7. It can share knowledge and inspire curiosity about the world God made. 8. Ask questions about the topic 9. good 10. A topic is interesting if it is something we care about and want to learn more about.