

Informative Writing: Engaging Introductions

BibleMouse.com

Review the Techniques for Writing Introductions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about writing engaging introductions.

1. What makes a good introduction for informative writing?

---

---

2. Which technique can help capture a reader's attention?

- A. Asking a question
- B. Using a long sentence
- C. Repeating the same idea

3. A good introduction makes people want to ___ reading.

4. An introduction should be boring to make the reader focus.

True  False

5. Match the introduction technique to its description.

Asking a question

Makes readers think

Vivid description

Creates a strong image

Surprising fact

Gives unexpected information

6. Why is it important to capture a reader's attention?

---

---

7. What should an introduction tell the reader?

- A. What the writing is about
- B. All the details
- C. Only the conclusion

8. Proverbs 4:20 encourages us to attend to God's ___ and incline our ear to His sayings.

9. Name one way to make learning fun for others.

---

---

10. What does Proverbs 4:20 tell us about learning?

- A. It is unimportant
- B. It gives life and health
- C. It should be ignored

---

Answer Key

1. A good introduction tells what the writing is about and captures attention. 2. Asking a question 3. keep 4. False 5. Makes readers think 6. It helps readers want to learn more and stay interested. 7. What the writing is about 8. words 9. By using interesting facts or asking fun questions. 10. It gives life and health

