

Fact vs. Opinion Detectives

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Difference

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about facts and opinions.

1. What is a fact?

- A. A personal belief
- B. A verifiable true statement
- C. Something that cannot be proven

2. Writers use ____ in informative writing to make their work trustworthy.

3. Give one example of a fact you learned in class.

4. Which statement is an opinion?

- A. The sky is blue.
- B. Chocolate ice cream is the best flavor.
- C. Water is essential for life.

5. Match the statement to its type.

The grass is green.

Fact

I love pizza.

Opinion

6. Why is it important to use facts in writing?

7. How can we verify if something is true?

- A. By asking someone
- B. By checking reliable sources
- C. By guessing

8. An opinion is based on ____ and feelings.

9. What do you think is the most important reason to know the difference between facts and opinions?

10. According to Proverbs 22:21, what should we use to teach truth?

- A. Reliable words
- B. Opinions
- C. False statements

---

Answer Key

1. A verifiable true statement 2. facts 3. The Earth revolves around the Sun. 4. Chocolate ice cream is the best flavor. 5. Fact 6. Facts help readers trust the information. 7. By checking reliable sources 8. personal thoughts 9. It helps us make better decisions and understand the truth. 10. Reliable words