

Building Strong Opinions

BibleMouse.com

Review Questions from the Lesson

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about supporting opinions with evidence.

1. What makes an example strong?

- A. It is long
- B. It is clear and specific
- C. It is confusing

2. A strong example helps readers understand the ____ of an opinion.

3. Why is it important to use details in opinion writing?

4. Match each term with its correct definition.

Evidence

A belief or judgment

Opinion

Facts that support a belief

5. Strong examples should confuse the reader.

- True False

6. How can you tell if an example is helpful?

- A. If it is interesting
- B. If it relates to the main idea
- C. If it is funny

7. Using ____ examples strengthens your opinion writing.

8. What does Proverbs 14:15 teach us about forming opinions?

9. Match the type of writing to its purpose.

Opinion Writing

To express a belief

Descriptive Writing

To describe something in detail

10. Adding specific examples can make your opinion stronger.

- True False

Answer Key

1. It is clear and specific 2. main idea 3. Details help support the opinion and make it clearer to the reader. 4. A belief or judgment 5. false 6. If it relates to the main idea 7. specific 8. It teaches us to think carefully before believing something. 9. To express a belief 10. true